impression has been very general that Detective A. M. Gibson cares little or nothing for public opinion, and to-day he gave that impression an emphatic endorsement. A CRITIC reporter, in company with a prom-inent newspaper correspondent, met him at Room 59, P. O. D., and in course of conordinary mortals, settled the whole question, so far as he was concerned, with the remark "Oh, d—n public opinion."

THE REMOVAL by Sergeant-at-Arms cither "MacVeagh's manne Bright of J. M. Heiskel, of Maryland, has stirred up somewhat of a hornet's nest. Mr. Bright says he dismissed him at the instigation of Senator Gorman, while Heiskel claims that he has a letter in his possession from the Senator in which he denies that he sked Mr. Bright to make the removal. Heiskel is a politician of some note in Bal-timore, and says he proposes to sift the mat-ter to the bottom and find out all about the true inwardness of his summary bounc-ing. The removals and appointments made by Mr. Bright since the adjournment are as by Mr. Bright since the adjournment are as follows: Wm. E. Dougherty, of Pennsylvania, appointed doorkeeper vice Charles S. Draper, of the same State, removed. I. R. Randall, of Georgia, appointed messenger in place of H. H. "MACVEAGH'S MANNER."

The Attorney General's Position Again Defined by One of His News-paper Backers.

Monday of this week THE CRITIC published a statement setting forth that it vas the settled policy of the Administration as a whole to adhere to regular judicial methods in the Star-route prosecutions. It was stated in that article that "the President, while anxious to see the ends of justice fulfilled, is not willing that the power of the Administration shall be used to compass the ends of anything that is not just, and will not consent to the programme of using the grand jury as an indiscriminate drag-net with which to go fishing for State's evidence." It was also said that "every case as made up by the detectives would be subjected to the most rigid and impartial legal scrutiny before being submitted to the grand jury."

That article was printed as news simply, because it was known to be true, and because the maragement of THE CRITIC deemed it fair and proper that the wise and just intention and determination of the Administration should be made public. It was simply an affair of newspaper enter-

If THE CRITIC'S reporters enjoyed unusual facilities for finding out important facts, so much the better for THE CRITIC, which is a Newspaper and nothing else, at all times and under all circumstances. But of the New York Sun with an able column to all intents and purposes avowedly stating the MacVeagh side of the case:

"THE CRITIC," says the Sun man, tained the authorized statement of the manner the Star trials were to be conducted, which decidedly is not the manner of Mac-

Veagh! Ah! Is that it?

THE CRITIC stated, as a matter of news, that "the Administration had determined that the Star trials must be conducted by regular judicial methods." That was all. But the Sau correspondent avers that that is "decidedly not the manner of MacVeagh!"

We seem to be approaching something definite. Will the San man tells us-as he seems to be in the secrets of that officer-what "Mac-Veagh's manner" is? Do we understand "MacVeagh's manner" to be the reverse of " regular judicial methods." We repeat SEVERAL protests have been received at the Treasury Department against the petition of Mr. J. W. Holland to be allowed to open a lunch room in the building. The main objection urged against Holland is that he was in the rebel army. The question of setting aside a room in the building where the clerks can be served with lunch of his advisers had "authorized" our statethat THE CRITIC's statement touching the of his advisers had "authorized" our statement in the sense of giving it to us for publication. We obtained the facts by the ordinary and legitimate methods of obtaining news; nothing more. But now let the Sun man explain what MacVeagh's manner" is, differing, as it does, so "decidedly" from the "regular judicial methods" determined upon by the President and his trusted advisers as a matter of common justice and of the ordinary prudence which accompanies a sense of responsibility. The Sun man states the attitude of his friend MacVeagh as follows: Up to within a short time the Attorney stitution. The President will leave Williamstown on the afternoon of July 7 for 8t.

Albans. On the arrival of the President at St. Albans he will be received by the militia and escorted to the residence of Hon. W. C.
Smith. On Friday President Garfield will address the public from a stand in the park, and in the evening hold a reception at the Welden House. On Saturday the Presidential party will leave for the White Mountains, via Montpelier. Gen. Farnham will deliver the opening address of welcome to the members of the institute on Tuesday

A. M. GIBSON AND PUBLIC OPINION.—The impression has been very general that Detestiva A. M. Gibson area little, or verbies.

General has been industriously at work gathering and arranging testimony in the Starroute cases, preparatory to going before the grand jury. This work, it is known, has taken a wide range, with the view largely to getting proofs of various kinds implicating certain leading characters in a conspiracy to defraud the Government. Much of this testimony is what is known as State's evidence by contractors and confederates of various grades and kinds;
not "evidence of record," which in revenue cases, it is now discovered, has been found to be about the only description of proof that has been followed by conviction.

That is "MacVeagh's manner," is it?

That is "MacVeagh's manner;" is it? Very well. "MacVeagh's manner," as THE Trade Demonstration in Montreal. CRITIC understands you to say, means about to Mr. Gibson that inasmuch as the Starroute cases had been postponed till next September, he thought the Government had weakened its side of the case for the reason that public opinion was wavering.

Mr. Gibson, with the air of one far above ordinary mortals, settled the whole anestion in the proposes to turn the grand jury sinto a be proposes to turn the grand jury sinto a he proposes to turn the grand jury into a machine for extorting perjury. Is that it?

In conclusion one might remark that quired. either "MacVeagh's manner" is unfortunate or his selection of defenders and apologists

THE INDIAN TERRITORY.

Driving out White Introduces.

Driving out White Intruders.

Driving out White Intruders.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, June 24.—The United States cavalry from Fort Sill arrived here this a. m., to assist the Choctaw militia, under command of Gov. McCurtin, in removing white intruders and their stock from the Territory. The Choctaw militia, 200 strong, are now in earny at Scullyville. The troops which arrived this morning will leave to-day and join them at that point, when the work of driving out the whites, even though they have permits to occupy the land, will be commenced at once. A large number of settlers have gone voluntarily, leaving all their projectly behind. All persons not Indians or not intermarried with Indians, are classed as intruders. A large number of whites having extensive ranches, and claiming to hold genuine permits, say they will not be driven off, but will protect themselves. If force is used scrious trouble is imminent.

Current Rumors on Wall Street this Morning.

Special dispatch to THE CHITIC.

NEW YORK, June 24.—10 a. m.—The average sentiment expressed last night regarding what the stock market would probably crage sentiment expressed last night regarding what the stock market would probably do to-day was mainly in favor of a strenger and higher general list, notwitstanding the indifferent and rather irregular closing.

It was said by brokers that money was reported at 7 per cent, for small lots late in the day, and rumors were circulated by the bears of an unfavorable bank statement to-morrow, but it was claimed that funds were offered all the time at 3 and 4 per cent, for $250,000 by Eames & Moore. About the only securities the movement in which excites considerable diversity of opinion are trunk liners, and this is principally owing to the admissions of several of the managers that at present, so far as grain rates are concerned, the pool is practically abandoned; but they nevertheless declare that no contracts are being made at the prevailing low rates. It was thought by conservative traders last night that the market, as a whole, looked well. It was claimed there was a large existing short interest in it.

The friends of Gould, Sage, and Dillon say that they expect and predict a great deal higher market next week, and some of the best houses in the street believe in a considerable advance to-day, unless the Vander-
